Up to 90 passengers can sail towards an unforgettable day on board. You decide whether you want to actively help with the maneuvers, or whether the on-board crew does it for you and your team.

For weekends and longer sailing trips, the ship offers space for 36 passengers in comfortable cabins: These are the best prospects for an eventful and relaxing sailing trip.

Great menus can be conjured up in the fully equipped galley while you chat over an aperitif at the bar. The salon seats 40 guests.

The tall ship offered here looks back on an eventful history. Built in 1907 in Bergen, Norway, it was originally used as a Herring-Logger. In 1992 the ship was converted into a Two-Mast-Logger with modern rigging and a comfortable interior. In the winter of 2001/2002, the 3-Mast-Gaff-Schooner was converted again.
